If you have a flair for modern Food and Beverage culture in general, are superior at Coffee making and enjoy the fun of welcoming customers, then this business should readily appeal. It has not been managed or marketed to best effect in the past, so there is good upside potential.

Engage the family to work proactively in this fine western suburb's location, which attracts respectful sophisticated clientele. The owner has applied hard work to hand over to a dedicated, well-supported, sophisticated restaurateur.

There is convenient parking and the restaurant is surrounded by quality retail shops including fashion, food, jewellery, banking. These customers are all looking for a refined eatery. Nearby is a popular bar, a Dome Café, a Grill'd Restaurant plus a very popular Cafe.

On inspection you will be appreciative of a very relaxed ambiance, modern easy-to-maintain equipment and décor and a broad, open-air dining space, a large 158m2 open plan design. Locals have thoroughly enjoyed reliable service culture and social media posts attest to high service standards and consistent food quality.

This sale offers genuine value-for-money with the price based upon plant and equipment value. The vendor is very motivated to sell and is going to market to mitigate other business obligations. Whilst other restaurants and cafes have closed, this entertaining gem continues to flourish with its unique open relaxed dining space.
